RECOMMENDATIONS

Name: Mohammad Aynul Islam | Professor

It's my pleasure to introduce Shaharia Mahmud who is a graduate student of political science at the University of Dhaka, Bangladesh. He is my classroom student in the Department, and I taught him three courses. Additionally, he has been working in my organization Microgovernance Research Initiatives-MGR since 2021 which focus on empirical analysis of Political Trends in Bangladesh. The dedication he has been showing to his responsibility is truly amazing and praiseworthy.

Name: Rubel Molla | Lecturer

Shaharia Mahmud has directly worked under my supervision while I was the program manager in MGR. He worked with proficiency and discipline in that duration. Moreover, I had the privilege to teach him one course after joining as a lecturer in department of Political Science at University of Dhaka. As far as I am concerned, he is truly knowledge oriented and problem solver.

PROJECTS

[09/12/2023]

Youthful Democracy 2023

This was a part of my learning in 'Democracy from Theory to Practice' Course. At the end of this Course, I did this action project in a four-member team. In this project, we organized a gallery walk and a mock voting in an open environment at the Dhaka University Campus. The objective was to motivate the first-time voters to participate in the Parliamentary Election 2024 in Bangladesh.

PolitixPlume

This is an ongoing project that I have been working on since past few months. As a political science graduate, I want to contribute to the healthy political development of Bangladesh. I believe educating youth can be a pivotal way to do that. I want to spread in depth political knowledge from academic perspective to vast youth population, the knowledge will also be generated by the youth like me. It will include their point of view and suggestion for creating better political environment in Bangladesh. The platform will be a website which is currently in production process, and I have a long goal to make positive contribution in governance and policy making process of Bangladesh through this platform.
